This Contract is subject to a community property interest if you are married and have resided in AK, AZ, CA, ID, LA, NM, NV, PR, TX, WA or WI during your marriage. If a community property interest exists and you do not name your spouse as the sole primary beneficiary, you must have your spouse sign below before a notary public to waive his or her rights to the proceeds of the Contract. If the space for consent below is not signed, then Ohio National shall be entitled to rely in good faith that no community property interest exists. In consideration thereof and of Ohio National's acknowledgment of this beneficiary designation, you, for yourself and your estate, heirs, beneficiaries, successors and assigns, agree to indemnify Ohio National and hold it harmless from any claims that may arise by virtue of Ohio National's acceptance of the beneficiary designation listed above and payment of any claim made in accordance with such designation.

(Note: This section needs to be notarized only if there is a community property interest as described above). If you previously named your spouse as a beneficiary under this contract but that spouse no longer has a community property interest in the Contract by reason of death, divorce, etc., documentation of such is required. Please consult your legal and/or tax adviser for additional information regarding your particular situation.

General Provisions:

Ohio National, in ascertaining any beneficiaries not specifically named, shall be entitled to rely upon an affidavit and any payments made in reliance upon such affidavit shall relieve the Company from any further liability to any person whomsoever.

If the beneficiary is not a natural person (e.g. Trust or corporation), Ohio National's sole responsibility is to pay the designated beneficiary and has no other obligation for payment of the proceeds. Settlement Options may be limited when an entity other than a natural person (e.g. Trust, Estate) or a minor child is named as the beneficiary of the Contract. Please refer to your Contract and/or contact your financial advisor.

If your spouse is designated as the beneficiary and there is a subsequent divorce, the former spouse's entitlement to any claim proceeds may be affected by the terms of the divorce decree (or similar document) or by state law which may automatically revoke the beneficiary designation. Additional documentation may be required.

Individual Annuity Beneficiary Designation Information Sheet

General instructions:

Please read these instructions carefully before updating your beneficiary information. This sheet was created to assist in completing the Beneficiary Change Request (Form V-4614), but is only a guideline and does not include a description for every situation, nor is it intended to provide legal advice. Please review the information closely and contact your financial advisor or an Annuity Product Specialist at 888.925.6446 if you have any questions about completing the Beneficiary Change Request (Form V-4614). If you have questions relating to the effectiveness of a beneficiary designation, we recommend you consult your estate planner.

A new beneficiary may be named to an Ohio National contract at any time prior to the death of the Annuitant. Please note that a beneficiary must be a natural person or legal entity.

Required

- Write the name of each beneficiary legibly. Please note we are unable to accept “children of insured” without additional information identifying each child as a beneficiary.
- Indicate if a beneficiary is a primary or contingent beneficiary by marking the appropriate box. Please refer to Section 1 below for additional information.
- Indicate the relationship between the Annuitant and/or owner(s) and each named beneficiary (non-spouse cannot be accepted as a relationship).
- Provide each beneficiary’s Social Security Number, date of birth, phone number, email, and home address, if known.
- The form must be witnessed by an unrelated and disinterested party, and the witness cannot be a named beneficiary.
- Sign and date the form, including appropriate titles (e.g. Trustee) if necessary. Please refer to Section 5 for additional signature requirements.

1. Primary and contingent beneficiaries

A primary beneficiary must be listed on the beneficiary form. If you do not wish to change the primary beneficiary on file, that beneficiary must still be restated on the new form. If you are naming more than one primary or contingent beneficiary, you may specify the percentage of proceeds each is to receive (proceeds must total 100%). Ohio National will distribute equal shares of the proceeds to each named beneficiary if percentage designations are not provided. If a beneficiary predeceases the Annuitant that beneficiary’s portion of the proceeds will be divided into equal shares among the surviving beneficiaries. Please note: A contingent beneficiary is entitled to the death benefit only if the primary beneficiary on file predeceases the Annuitant or disclaims his/her portion of the proceeds.

2. Trust as beneficiary

When designating a trust as a beneficiary, please provide: (1) the full name of the trust as it appears on the trust document and (2) either the date the trust was created or its Taxpayer Identification Number. If the beneficiary is a testamentary trust you do not have to indicate the date the trust was created.

Please note: Ohio National is not responsible for and will not perform any administration or payment restrictions within a trust as a named beneficiary. Additionally, Ohio National will not pay an individual trustee but rather the trust as a whole. The named trustee is responsible for distributing the funds per the terms of the trust document.

3. Joint Guaranteed Lifetime Withdrawal Benefit (GLWB) Rider

The terms of the Joint GLWB Rider state the Participating Spouse must be either the sole primary beneficiary or a joint owner of the contract. If the spouse is not named as the sole primary beneficiary or as an owner of the Annuity, the joint benefits of the Rider will terminate. However, the client will continue to be charged for the full Joint GLWB Rider at each contract anniversary. If you wish to proceed with a beneficiary change that violates the terms of the Rider, a signed acknowledgement must be provided attesting to the fact that the joint benefits will terminate and the Rider charge will continue to be assessed.

Please note: Ohio National will not terminate the joint benefits of the Joint GLWB letter without a signed acknowledgement from the contract owner(s).

4. Plan and custodial owned contracts

Contracts owned by a plan may not designate a new beneficiary at Ohio National. Instead, the plan must remain the primary beneficiary on file. Please contact the plan administrator to update the beneficiary of the plan.

Similarly, the primary beneficiary of custodial owned contracts must remain the Custodian. In order to change the beneficiary, please contact the custodian directly.

5. Signature requirements

- Form must be signed and dated by the contract owner(s). If the contract is jointly owned, both owners must sign the request in order to update the beneficiary designation.
- If the contract is trust, company, or plan owned an authorized person must sign with his/her title.
- Form must be received at Ohio National within 90 days of the signature date.
- The witness must sign on the same date as the contract owner if the client resides in Massachusetts.
- Any additional pages submitted with the Beneficiary Change Request must be signed, dated, and witnessed the same day as the form.
- If the current contract owner lives in a Community Property State and his/her spouse is not named as the sole primary beneficiary, the below Spousal Consent must be completed and signed by said spouse in the presence of the notary. A list of all states that fall under this distinction can be found on page two of the Beneficiary Change Request.
