All other transactions will be executed using unit value determined at the close of Ohio National's next business day when the NYSE is open. Ohio National, in our sole discretion, may request additional Personal Identification, and may refuse to execute a Transaction for which insufficient or inaccurate Personal Identification has been provided or if other circumstances warrant our refusal. Ohio National, its directors, officers, employees, sales associates, and assigns assume no responsibility for, and shall not be liable for, any damage, loss, or injury incurred: (a) as a direct or indirect result of any unauthorized access to your account using your Personal Identification; or (b) due to client's inability to access account information or to conduct a Transaction for any reason, including, but not limited to, system or network errors, unusual system usage, or loss or interruption of services with any telephone, Internet, or any other service provider.
